What are Money Market Funds?

Money Market Funds are open ended mutual fund schemes that invest in money market instruments and endeavors to help manage short term cash surpluses of investors and provide optimal returns with moderately low levels of risk and high liquidity.

They invest in short-term highly liquid investments with higher credit rating.

Nippon India Money Market Fund

The fund would invest in money market instruments with residual maturity of up to one year, such as Certificate of Deposits (CD), Commercial Papers (CP), Treasury Bills or any other instruments specified by RBI/SEBI.

As a result of having a higher credit profile and low duration, the returns profile is likely to be less volatile.

Current Investment Strategy

- ❖ Fund will predominantly invest in AAA & A1+ rated issuers
- ❖ The fund would invest in money market instruments with a residual maturity up to 1 year
- ❖ Modified Duration of the fund would be maintained between 90 - 330 days under normal market condition

Note: Above mentioned current investment strategy is based on the prevailing market conditions and is subject to change within the limits of the SID basis the Fund manager's view.

Who should invest?

- ❖ Investors seeking better returns with relatively low volatility as the fund would offer higher carry
- ❖ Investors with investment horizon of 1 to 3 months
- ❖ Investors looking for alternate investment avenues to park idle surplus funds for short term
- ❖ Investors looking for higher liquidity options for their investments
